Tiger Would

"A wine that would make a burgundy blush."

GOVERNMENT WARNING: Always check your rearview mirror and watch out for fire hydrants.

A complex and elegant wine that balances the expression of fruity and savory elements with finesse. It has a slightly hooking attack and a floral, spicy mid-palate. The finish, a par five, is smooth with well integrated tannins. This is the perfect wine to relax with after a round of golf, a cocktail or two and a couple of cocktail waitresses.

Contents: High fructose grape syrup, MSG, sulfides, sulfates, artificial flavoring, artificial coloring, and what nutritionists like to refer to as "other stuff."
