

GOVERNMENT WARNING: Some women — the ones who are always trying to ruin a perfectly good time — might remember what you've done to them, even after two and a half bottles of this wine.

Harvey Wine^(stein) is neither naive nor unassuming. It is a forward, robust, penetrating, unctuous wine: you simply cannot say “no” to it. This wine has a nose that rivals Cyrano’s and its tongue? Well, just wait until you get it down your throat! Harvey Wine^(stein) takes “earthy” to a whole new level. It is the perfect wine for that late-night job interview or audition.

Contains sulfites, MSG, clonazepam, alprazolam and trace amounts of bodily fluids.
